

OUR AGREEMENT

- Section 1 covers the general terms and conditions of our relationship
- Section 2 covers the personal guaranty of the person completing the application
- Section 3 covers important additional terms related to the business credit card

Definitions: The terms “we,” “us,” and “our” refer to Commerce Bank, a Missouri bank and trust company, and its assigns. The terms “Company” and “Business” refer to the business identified in the application (“Application”). “You” and “your” refer to both the Company and the Authorizing Officer who submits the Application. Person(s) who have been given a card by the Company, with expressed or implied permission, are “Employee Cardholders.” The person that completed the application on behalf of the Company is the “Authorizing Officer.”

By submitting the Application, you request that we establish a business credit card account (the “Account”) and issue Visa Credit Card(s) (“Card(s)”) to you and request individual accounts be opened for, and cards be issued to, the employees named.

The Account, and your use of the Cards, will be governed by this agreement, any terms on the application, and any other legal documents related to the Account (collectively the “Agreement”). The Agreement shall be binding on your successors, assigns, heirs, trustees, personal representatives, or anyone else lawfully succeeding your interest in this Agreement.

Company specifically authorizes us to rely and act on the instructions of the Authorizing Officer and Company confirms that action taken by Authorizing Officer will be binding on the Company. Authorizing officer represents and warrants that he/she is an owner of Company. Authorizing Officer further acknowledges that he/she is both representing the company, but also agreeing to be a guarantor in his or her individual capacity. The construction of this Agreement and definitions should be construed accordingly.
