

Royals Hall of Fame Weekend

Video Transcript

Royals Hall of Fame weekend is the opportunity for us to really celebrate the history of the club and all the people that have been a part of it.

So this is the celebration, the opportunity where we get to find those extra special people, the people that made extraordinary contributions to the club and give them the club's highest honor. And when we're able to do that, then we have the induction ceremony, make a big weekend out of it. It's really one of the most special weekends of the year.

We're really honored that Commerce Bank is with us for Royals Hall of Fame weekend this June twenty eighth and twenty ninth. Another opportunity to really celebrate Royal's history and all the people that have made the Royals great.