You agree to: (a) not disclose the Password, or other means to access the Service or your Accounts, or otherwise make it available to anyone else; (b) use the Password as instructed in the Guides; (c) immediately notify us of any loss or theft of the Password; and (d) be liable for the Password and for its authorized use and for its unauthorized use as described in this Agreement. Unless you notify us as provided in this Agreement, you acknowledge that we are entitled to rely on the use of your Password as your authorization for any Transaction through the Service. You are responsible for all Transactions you initiate or authorize using the Service. If you permit any other person to use the Service or your Password or other means to access your account, you will have authorized that person to access your Accounts and you are solely responsible for any Transactions that person initiates or authorizes from your Accounts.

We reserve the right to implement additional security procedures, such as but not limited to limiting the frequency and dollar amount of Transactions from your Accounts for security reasons. Customer agrees that its continued use of any such changed security procedures evidences its agreement to, and acceptance of, the commercial reasonableness of such changed procedures.

YOUR LIABILITY FOR UNAUTHORIZED TRANSACTIONS

Personal Accounts. You could lose all the money in your Account plus your maximum overdraft line of credit. If you tell us within 2 Business Days after you discover your password or other means to access to your account has been lost or stolen, you can lose no more than $50 if someone deposited, withdrew or transferred funds without your permission. If you do NOT tell us within 2 Business Days after you learn of such loss or theft and we can prove we could have stopped someone from transferring funds without your permission if you had told us, you could lose as much as $500. Also, if your Account statement shows Transactions that you did not authorize, tell us at once. If you do not tell us within 60 days after the statement was mailed to you or within 60 days after you were notified by e-mail that your statement was available online, you may not get back any money you lost after the 60 days if we can prove that we could have stopped someone from taking the money if you had told us in time. If good reason (such as a long trip or a hospital stay) kept you from telling us, we will extend the time periods.

Business Accounts. All Payments through the Service will be reflected on Customer's periodic bank statement. Customer should review each statement for any discrepancies in connection with Payments. If Customer thinks a Transaction is wrong or needs more information about the Transaction, Customer must contact Commerce upon discovery of the error or within fourteen (14) calendar days after receipt of the first notice or periodic statement with a discrepancy, whichever is earlier. Failure to notify Commerce within the timeframe allotted above will relieve Commerce of any obligation to pay interest on or otherwise compensate Customer for the amount of an unauthorized or erroneous Payment. In accordance with UCC § 4A-501(a), except to the extent otherwise provided by applicable law, Commerce will incur no liability for an unauthorized Payment if Customer does not notify Commerce of any unauthorized Payment within thirty (30) calendar days after receiving its first notice or periodic statement.

TYPES OF AVAILABLE TRANSACTIONS AND LIMITS ON TRANSACTIONS

Certain Transactions are not available to certain customers based on account relationships. For example, certain Transactions require an established Personal Deposit Account. You will be alerted to these restrictions within the Service.

Wealth Manager Customers. Wealth Manager Customers and their Interested Parties may perform any act or Transaction available within the Service. However, the applicable Commerce Trust Company documentation provided to you either at the time of your enrollment in or at any other time during your use of Wealth Manager, shall describe permissible acts within Wealth Manager and include the terms and conditions that govern your use thereof.

Account Access. Upon request, and subject to account availability, you may use the Service to:

- Obtain account balances and transaction information, including access to your account history, for your Accounts.

If you have Adobe® Reader® software, you can view and download imaged copies of your periodic statements, checks, deposit slips (not deposited items) and any internal debits or credits.

- Change your statement delivery options (available for Business Accounts when applicable).

Select from several paper and electronic periodic statement delivery formats for your Accounts or chose to no longer receive your bank statements delivered in a paper format. This choice will apply to all Accounts.

- Submit a request to open new accounts.

- Change security information necessary to access the account.

You may use the Service to change the security information necessary to access the system, such as ID/password, personal security image or caption, security questions and answers, etc.

- Create and update email addresses.

In order to send you certain electronic communications (e.g. electronic statement reminders, Alerts, Bill Pay reminders, etc.), the Service may require you to provide us with an email address(es). You may designate any email address(es) you wish for purposes of these electronic communications. However, you acknowledge that we have no obligation to confirm the ultimate recipient of any electronic communication sent to your designated email address(es). It is your sole obligation to input accurately your desired email address(es) and you hereby grant permission anyone with access to those email address(es) – intended recipients or otherwise – to receive such electronic communications and all contents therein on your behalf.

- Receive email Alerts.

You may use the Service to receive alerts related to particular customer identifiers that you maintain with Us (Security Alerts) and/or alerts related to your Account activity (Account Alerts) in the form of emails sent to your selected email addresses (collectively “Alerts”). Once enrolled for Alerts, Security Alerts are enabled by default (although you may disable these alerts) and will help you manage the security of your accounts with Us. Examples of Security Alerts are when your OLB password has changed, your OLB User ID has changed, your address has changed, your telephone number has changed, etc. In addition to Security Alerts, you may choose to receive various Account Alerts which will help you manage activity in your Accounts. By signing up to receive Alerts, you consent to delivery of such Alerts to the email addresses you identify. You are responsible for notifying us of any changes to your email to which Alerts are sent.

Security Alerts are sent automatically after the triggering event and Account Alerts are sent daily, Tuesday through Saturday, based on account activity occurring on the prior Business Day. You understand and agree that Alerts will not be sent on a "real time" basis, and that all Alerts are sent AFTER the triggering event has taken place and been completed. Alerts are simply after-the-fact reminders and will not, nor are intended to, prevent any event or Transaction from taking place.

We reserve the right to change the frequency or timing of Alerts, at any time and from time to time. Any modifications shall be effective when they are posted on the Service. You will be notified as soon as possible when any changes are made that materially affect your rights.

You acknowledge that Alerts will not be encrypted, and you agree to receive Alerts that may include confidential information pertaining to you, this Service, and your Account(s). Depending upon the Alert, information pertaining to checking account balances, checks written, or insufficient funds may be included. You agree to notify us of any change to your email addresses in order to ensure continued delivery of your Alerts. It is your responsibility to secure these accounts, protect your user name(s) and password(s), and provide timely information about email contact changes in order to protect the confidentiality of this information. You consent to any disclosures by Commerce which may occur if you do not take appropriate steps to prevent access to your information by unauthorized persons.

We endeavor to provide Alerts in a timely manner with accurate information. However, we do not guarantee the delivery or accuracy of the contents of any Alert. Alert balances will not reflect pending transactions and deposits may not be available for immediate withdrawal. You understand and agree that receipt of each Alert may be delayed, or prevented by factors affecting your Internet service provider(s), phone operator(s), and such other relevant entities ("Third Party Service Providers"). All matters concerning Third Party Service Providers are solely between you and the Third Party Service Provider. We make no representations or warranties whatsoever with regard to Third Party Service Providers' products and services.

Alerts and its contents are intended for informative purposes only. Unless required by law or by contract, you acknowledge that Commerce is under no obligation to respond in any way to the event which prompted the Alert. Commerce and its affiliates will not be liable for losses or damages arising from (a) non-delivery, delayed delivery, or misdelivery of an Alert; (b) inaccurate content in an Alert; or (c) your use or reliance on the contents of any Alert for any purchases or any other reason. You agree that we shall not be liable for any delays, failure to deliver, or misdirected delivery of any Alert; for any errors in the content of an Alert; or for any actions taken or not taken by you or any third party in reliance on an Alert. If you believe further attention to this matter is required, you must contact the proper Commerce Bank representative as stated in the Alert. Alerts are not intended to replace your account statements or any other communications we may provide to you regarding your account(s).

- Access the Service via Mobile Banking.

You may access a scaled-down version of the Service in a mobile-device-friendly format (Mobile Banking) by visiting our Mobile Banking website www.commercebank.mobi. There you can find the most up-to-date list of services and Transactions available via Mobile Banking. This feature is not available for Business Accounts otherwise available via the Service or to Wealth Manager Customers. We reserve the right to modify the scope of the Services at any time. We reserve the right to refuse to make any Transaction you request through Mobile Banking. You agree and understand that Mobile Banking may not be accessible or may have limited utility over some wireless networks, such as while roaming. We do not charge you a fee for Mobile Banking, however, you may be charged for web access by your mobile carrier. Check with your carrier for details on specific fees and charges.

We will not be liable to you for any losses caused by your failure to properly use the Services or your Wireless Device. You agree that, when you use Mobile Banking, you remain subject to the terms and conditions of your existing agreements with any unaffiliated service providers, including, but not limited to, your mobile service provider (i.e., AT&T, Verizon, etc.), and that these terms do not amend or supersede any of those agreements. You understand that those agreements may provide for fees, limitations and restrictions which might impact your use of Mobile Banking, and you agree to be solely responsible for all such fees, limitations and restrictions. You agree that only your mobile service provider is responsible for its products and services. Accordingly, you agree to resolve any problems with your provider directly without involving us.

The availability, timeliness and proper functioning of Mobile Banking depends on many factors, including your wireless device location, wireless network availability and signal strength, and the proper functioning and configuration of hardware, software and your wireless device. Neither we nor any of our service providers warrants that the Services will meet your requirements, operate without interruption or be error-free, and neither we nor our service providers shall be liable for any loss or damage caused by any unavailability or improper functioning of Mobile Banking, or for any actions taken in reliance thereon, for any reason, including service interruptions, inaccuracies, delays, loss of data, or loss of personalized settings.

Likewise, You may NOT use e-mail to notify Commerce of a cancellation of your HELOC or in the case of errors or questions about your HELOC. Such notifications must be done in accordance with your signed credit agreement and in no event will Commerce be responsible if such notices are attempted through the Service. As required by U.S. Treasury Regulations, you are hereby advised that any written tax advice contained on this website was not written or intended to be used (and cannot be used) by any taxpayer for the purposes of avoiding penalties that may be imposed under the U.S. Internal Revenue Code.

Transfer funds between designated Accounts. You can use the Service to perform permissible transfers of funds to/from your Accounts as listed below. You cannot cancel your transfer after it has been entered into our system and the information has been transmitted to Commerce Bank, but you can use the Service to reverse a transaction after it has been entered. A request to transfer funds between designated Accounts will not result in an immediate transfer or immediate funds availability because of the time required to process the files (see below for more detail). If there are not available funds in the Deposit Account from which a transfer is being made at the time the transfer is processed, at our option, your account may become overdrawn and you may be charged a fee, or the transfer may be canceled. Certain transfers may be scheduled for future dates depending on the type of transfer being scheduled.

- Transfer funds between your Deposit Accounts. A request to transfer funds between your Deposit Accounts will result in same-day processing if received by Commerce before 7 p.m. (all times listed herein are Central Time as determined on Commerce's processing system). Requests to transfer such funds received by Commerce after 7 p.m. or on a non-Business Day will be considered to be made the next Business Day.
 - Note for PC Banking and Online Banking for Business Customers – The only permitted transfer available through the Service is transfers between your Deposit Accounts and the same day cut-off time for transfers initiated via PC Banking or Online Banking for Business is 6 p.m., instead of 7 p.m..

- Transfer funds from your Personal Deposit Accounts to your Personal Credit Accounts. Requests to transfer funds to a Personal Credit Account received by Commerce on a Business Day before 7 p.m. will be debited from your Deposit Account and credited to your Personal Credit Account as of the same Business Day, but the credit will not be reflected in your Personal Credit Account balance until the next Business Day. Requests to transfer such funds received after 7 p.m. on a Business Day or received on a non-Business Day will be processed as if received by Commerce on the next Business Day and processed accordingly.

- Transfer funds from Home Equity Lines of Credit to Personal Deposit Accounts. Requests to transfer funds from a HELOC to a Personal Deposit Account received by Commerce on a Business Day before 7 p.m. will be credited to your Personal Deposit Account and debited from your HELOC as of the same Business Day but the debit will not be reflected in your HELOC balance until the next Business Day. Requests to transfer such funds received after 7 p.m. on a Business Day or received on a non-Business Day will be processed as if received by Commerce on the next Business Day and processed accordingly.

Online Bill Payment. For an additional fee, and so long as you have an established Personal Deposit Account, you can perform the following tasks as a part of our Bill Payment service:

- Make payments from your Payment Account(s) in the amounts you request to persons or businesses in the United States. Receive bills electronically.
 - Payment Methods. We reserve the right to select the method in which to remit funds on your behalf to your Biller. These payment methods may include, but may not be limited to, an electronic payment ("EFT Payments"), an electronic to check payment ("EFT To Check Payment") or a laser draft payment drawn on your Payment Account and signed "signature on file" ("Draft Payment") (funds remitted to the Biller are deducted from your Payment Account when the laser draft is presented to your financial institution for payment.).

- EFT To Check Payments. In some instances, CheckFree may issue a check payable to your Biller, drawn on an account managed by CheckFree, which contains only user funds. ("Check"). CheckFree will debit your Payment Account on the Due Date. You agree to be liable to CheckFree if there are insufficient available funds to pay the electronic debit. The Check will not be paid by CheckFree if it is not presented within 90 days of the date of issue, at which time the funds will be returned to your Payment Account.

- Payment Scheduling. A "Scheduled Payment" is a payment that has been scheduled through the Service but has not begun processing. You may specify the date by which you want the Biller to receive your bill payment ("Scheduled Payment Date"). That day can be any Business Day up to 360 days in the future. The Scheduled Payment Date is also the day your Payment Account will be debited, unless the Scheduled Payment Date falls on a non-Business Day in which case it will be considered to be the previous Business Day. "Payment Instruction" is the information provided by you to the Service for a bill payment to be made to the Biller, such as, but not limited to, Biller name, Biller account number and Scheduled Payment Date. "Due Date" is the date reflected on your Biller statement for which the payment is due. It is not the late date or grace period. The earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date for each Biller (typically four (4) or fewer Business Days from the current date) will be designated within the application when you are scheduling the payment. Therefore, the application will not permit you to select a Scheduled Payment Date less than the earliest possible Scheduled Payment Date designated for each Biller. Depending on the U.S. Postal Service, or other commercial delivery service, and the manner in which the Biller processes the draft, a Draft Payment may post to your Payment Account before the Scheduled Payment Date. When scheduling payments you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is no later than the actual Due Date unless the Due Date falls on a non-Business Day. If the actual Due Date falls on a non-Business Day, you must select a Scheduled Payment Date that is at least one (1) Business Day before the actual Due Date. Scheduled Payment Dates should be prior to any late date or grace period. If more than one payment has the same Scheduled Payment Date, we will, in our sole discretion, determine the order in which these payments are processed.

- Payment Authorization and Payment Remittance. By providing the Service with names and account information of Billers to whom you wish to direct payments, you authorize us to follow the Payment Instructions that the Service receives through the payment system. In order to process payments more efficiently and effectively, the Service may edit or alter payment data or data formats in accordance with Biller directives.

- When the Service receives a Payment Instruction, you authorize us to debit your Payment Account and remit funds on your behalf so that the funds arrive as close as reasonably possible to the Scheduled Payment Date designated by you. You also authorize us to credit your Payment Account for payments returned to the Service by the United States Postal Service, other mail or delivery service, or Biller; or payments remitted to you on behalf of another authorized user of the Service.
- Prohibited Payments. Payments to Billers outside the United States are prohibited. In addition, you may not make a payment of alimony, maintenance, child support, taxes, or other governmental fees or court-directed payments through the Service. In no event shall we be liable for any claims or damages resulting from your scheduling Prohibited Payments. The Service Guarantee as it applies to any late payment related charges is void when Prohibited Payments are scheduled and/or processed by the Service. We have no obligation to research or resolve any claim resulting from the scheduling and/or processing of Prohibited Payments by the Service. All research and resolution for any misapplied, improperly posted or misdirected payments will be your sole responsibility.
- Biller Limitation. We shall have a reasonable opportunity to act before changes to your Biller list are effective. While most Billers can be reached through the Service, we reserve the right to refuse to allow you to designate any particular Biller or classes of Billers. We will notify you if we decide to refuse to pay a Biller designated by you. This notification is not required if you attempt to make a Prohibited Payment.
- Your Responsibility To Schedule Timely Payments. It is your responsibility to transmit your Payment Instructions in such a manner that your bills are paid on time. You are responsible for any late payment charge, finance charge, penalty or default that may result from your failure to transmit Payment Instructions in sufficient time.
- Service Guarantee. Due to circumstances beyond our control, particularly delays in handling and posting payments by Billers or financial institutions, some Transactions may take longer to be credited to your account. We will bear responsibility for any late payment related charges up to $50.00 should a payment post after its Due Date as long as the payment was scheduled in accordance with the section entitled Payment Scheduling in this Agreement.

- You agree to notify us promptly if you receive notice from a Biller that a payment you made using the Service has not been completed or remains unpaid. We will not be liable to you for any damages to the extent that your failure or delay in notifying us that a bill payment was not made prevents us from avoiding or alleviating such damages.
- Returned Payments. We will not be liable to you if a Biller cannot or will not accept a payment made through the Service. You understand that Billers, the United States Postal Service and/or other mail or delivery services may return payments to the Service for various reasons such as, but not limited to, Biller's forwarding address expired; your account number with Biller not valid; Biller is unable to locate your account; or your account with Biller is paid in full. We will attempt to resolve the problem and return the payment to the Biller or we will void the payment and credit your Payment Account.

Address Or Banking Changes. It is your sole responsibility to ensure that the current contact information in your user profile is current and accurate. This includes, but is not limited to, name, address, phone numbers and e-mail addresses. Changes can be made either through the Service or by contacting Online Banking Customer Service. Any changes in your Payment Account(s) must also be made in accordance with the procedures contained in the Help files. All changes are effective immediately for Scheduled Payments and future payments from the updated Payment Account information. The Service is not responsible for any payment processing errors or fees incurred if you do not provide accurate Payment Account or contact information.

Cancellation. The Service may be automatically cancelled by us if not used for two consecutive months.

Funds Availability. Funds are available for transfers and payments in accordance with our Funds Availability Policy contained in the Deposit Agreement. If there are not sufficient available funds in the Deposit Account to make transfers or Payment Account to make Scheduled Payments, we may either refuse to honor transfer or payment requests or may make the transfer or payment and thereby overdraw the Deposit Account or Payment Account. In either event, you will pay on demand by us the negative balance and are responsible for any insufficient funds and return item charges. If you have overdraft checking privileges with us, you are bound by the rules and regulations that apply to that credit privilege. If we refuse to honor a transfer or payment request due to insufficient available funds, the request will be canceled and we will not make the transfer or payment at a later date.

- EFT To Check Payments. In some cases CheckFree will issue a Check drawn on an account it manages, which contains only user funds, to make a Scheduled Payment. If there are insufficient available funds in your Payment Account on the Due Date for that payment, you will reimburse CheckFree immediately upon demand for the amount of the Check.

Limitation on Dollar Amount And Frequency of Transactions. Subject to available Deposit Account balances, funds transfers and bill payments can be made for any amount from $1.00 to $999,999.00. However, transfers from a HELOC will require a $50.00 minimum and will be limited by the available credit on the HELOC. There are no limitations on the number of Transactions that can be made during any time period to or from any Account, except as provided by federal regulations limiting preauthorized transfers. By federal regulation, you are limited during any statement cycle to six preauthorized or automatic transfers (three of which may be by check, draft or similar order) if the Account is a savings or a savings with limited check writing privileges (money market type) account. Online bill payments and transfers between your Deposit Accounts are considered preauthorized transfers.

You agree to pay such charges and authorize the Service to deduct the calculated amount from your designated Billing Account for these amounts and any additional charges that may be incurred by you. However, if there are insufficient funds in the Billing Account, we may debit any Deposit Account as a source of payment of Transactions and for any related fee or service charge. Any financial fees associated with your standard deposit accounts will continue to apply. Because of differences between the service charge billing cycle and your Billing Account statement cycle, the monthly service charge may not appear on consecutive periodic statements. The service charge for two months may appear on the same periodic statement. The monthly service charge will apply whether or not you use the Service during the billing cycle. You are responsible for any and all telephone access fees and/or internet service fees that may be assessed by your telephone and/or internet service provider. We may change or add fees, without notice unless required by law. The fees in our Fee Schedules or the Deposit Agreement also apply. If a fee is waived because of your participation in a package account product, the fee may be assessed without notice upon termination of that condition.

DISCLOSURE OF ACCOUNT INFORMATION TO THIRD PARTIES

It is our general policy to treat your account information as confidential. However, we will disclose information to third parties about your Account or the Transactions you make:

- When it is necessary for completing Transactions or activating additional services; or

- In order to verify the existence and condition of your Account for a third party, such as a credit bureau, merchant, Biller or holder of a check issued through the Service; or
- In order to comply with government agency or court orders; or
- If you give us your permission; or
- In accordance with our current Privacy Policy Notice.

We may also share information with affiliates for purposes of offering or providing you other products or services, or may share our account experience information.

RIGHT TO RECEIVE DOCUMENTATION OF TRANSACTIONS

Periodic Statement. You will get a monthly statement if you have an Account upon which checks or drafts may be drawn. You will get a monthly statement on your regular savings account if there are Transactions during the month. In any case you will get a regular savings statement quarterly.

Statement Delivery Options (Available for Business Accounts When Applicable). You have two (2) options for the delivery of your periodic statement, by paper via U.S. Mail or by electronic delivery. If you have more than one Account with us you will need to select a statement delivery method for each Account. If you request to receive your periodic statement by electronic delivery exclusively, you understand and agree that you will not receive a paper statement or the documents enclosed with the paper statement, such as checks or images of checks, or payment coupons and business reply envelopes. If you select the electronic delivery option, we will send an e-mail reminder (to the e-mail address you provide when you select the option) notifying you when your statement becomes available to access through Online Banking at commercebank.com. You agree that you are responsible for maintaining a valid e-mail address and agree to notify us of any change in your e-mail address. You can change the e-mail address for the statement reminder at any time through Online Banking's Self Service menu. Should delivery of the email reminder be unsuccessful for whatever reason, it nevertheless remains your responsibility to retrieve your periodic statements in a timely manner from commercebank.com. Your statement will be posted to and available for viewing on or about the same day each month. The terms and conditions of your account agreement, including your duty to promptly review such statements and report any irregularities, shall apply to E-statements. Each electronic statement, including any legal notices about your Account which are provided electronically as part of your statement (such as change in terms), will remain available online for five (5) years. You may also print the statements or download to your own system. You may request a paper copy of any statement by sending us a message through Online Banking's Self Service menu. Charges may apply for paper copies. Please refer to your applicable Account agreement. You may cancel your electronic delivery selection at any time and receive paper statements via U.S. Mail by changing your statement option through Online Banking's Self Service menu. Fees may apply for some types of paper statements.

Your electronic statements will be delivered as an Adobe® Portable Document Format (PDF) file. To access and retain a PDF file, you need the free Adobe® Acrobat® Reader® (version 5.0 or higher). You may download the reader software application from Adobe's web site. You agree that you have the necessary software application to view and save PDF files.

RIGHT TO STOP PAYMENT, PROCEDURE FOR DOING SO, AND BANK'S LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO STOP PAYMENT

Payment Cancellation Requests Through the Service. You may cancel or edit any Scheduled Payment (including recurring payments) by following the procedures in the Guides. You may cancel or edit a Scheduled Payment through the Service until midnight Central Time of the sixth (6) Business Day before the Scheduled Due Date. There is no charge for canceling or editing a Scheduled Payment. Once the Service has begun processing a payment it cannot be cancelled or edited, therefore a stop payment request must be submitted (see below).

Stopping Payment Through Us. If it is too late to cancel a Scheduled Payment online through the Service as described above, or if there is a failure in the connection to CheckFree prior to the date the payment is processed, you may be able to stop payment through us. Although we will make every effort to accommodate your request, we will have no liability for failing to do so.

To stop payment, you must call or write us at the phone number or address listed in this Agreement.

Your stop payment request must include your Payment Account number, the Biller, the exact amount of the payment and the Scheduled Payment Date. We will charge you our then current stop payment fee.

Your ability to stop payment depends upon the payment method and whether or not the payment has cleared your Payment Account. Online Banking Customer Service will identify whether the payment was made by electronic fund transfer, draft or Check.

We shall have a reasonable opportunity to act before the stop payment order, renewal or termination is effective. We may honor a stop payment order on an Account by any account holder or authorized signer, regardless of who initiated the payment. We may terminate oral stop payment orders without notice in 14 days from the date requested, unless confirmed in writing. A written stop payment order will remain in effect for a minimum of 180 days from the effective date. If you wish to renew or terminate a stop payment order, you must do so in writing to us. A stop payment order may be terminated only by the account holder who placed it.

Failed or Returned Transaction. In using the Service, you are requesting the Service to make payments for you from your Payment Account. If we are unable to complete the transaction for any reason associated with your Payment Account (for example, there are insufficient funds in your Payment Account to cover the transaction), the transaction will not be completed. In some instances, you will receive a return notice from the Service. In such case, you agree that:

- You will reimburse the Service immediately upon demand the transaction amount that has been returned to the Service;
- For any amount not reimbursed to the Service within fifteen (15) days of the initial notification, a late charge equal to 1.5% monthly interest or the legal maximum, whichever rate is lower, for any unpaid amounts may be imposed;
- You will reimburse the Service for any fees imposed by your financial institution as a result of the return;
- You will reimburse the Service for any fees it incurs in attempting to collect the amount of the return from you; and,
- The Service is authorized to report the facts concerning the return to any credit reporting agency.

BANK'S LIABILITY FOR FAILURE TO MAKE TRANSFERS OR PAYMENTS

If we do not complete a Transaction to or from your Payment Account on time or in the correct amount according to this Agreement, we will be liable for your actual losses, if any, as provided by applicable laws and regulations. However, there are some exceptions. We shall not be liable and any Service Guarantee shall be void if we are unable to complete a Scheduled Payment or other Transaction if for example, but without limitation,

- Through no fault of ours, you do not have enough available funds in your Account to complete a Transaction on that Account.
- The Transaction would be over the limit of your available credit limit if you have overdraft protection.
- You have not properly followed the Guides or the Agreement for using the Service, or if your computer, software, related equipment, electrical power or telephone service fails or malfunctions.
- The Biller information necessary to complete the payment stored on your PC's hard drive and/or the host has been lost.
- You do not authorize a payment soon enough for your payment to be received by the Biller by the Due Date.
- Withdrawals from any of your Accounts have been prohibited by a court order such as a garnishment or other legal process, or the Account is in dispute or restricted for any other reason.

- The Service, payment processing center or your equipment was not working properly and either the breakdown was apparent, you knew about the breakdown, or we had advised you about the breakdown when you started the Transaction.
- A Biller does not accept, mishandles or delays in handling payments.
- You have not provided the correct and complete Payment Account information, Biller name, address, telephone number, account information or payment amount.
- Circumstances beyond our control, including, without limitation, fire, casualty, breakdown in equipment or failure of telecommunications or data processing services, sabotage, labor shortage, lockout, strike, unavoidable accident, acts of God, riot, war or the enactment, issuance or operation of any adverse governmental law, ruling, regulation, order or decree, or an emergency or catastrophe that prevents or materially interferes with the Bank's normal operations, prevents us from the processing of any Transaction or performance of the Service.
- Delays or losses of payments caused by the U.S. Postal Service or other commercial delivery service.

There may be other exceptions stated in our Agreement with you.

Provided none of the foregoing exceptions are applicable, if the Service causes an incorrect amount of funds to be removed from your Payment Account or causes funds from your Payment Account to be directed to a Biller which does not comply with your Payment Instructions, the Service shall be responsible for returning the improperly transferred funds to your Payment Account, and for directing to the proper Biller any previously misdirected transactions, and, if applicable, for any late payment related charges.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

If the Service is not available due to malfunction of the system or circumstances beyond our control, you agree to access accounts and pay bills by other means such as a bank branch, ATM, telephone, check, credit or debit card. Online Banking Customer Service and your Commerce Banker will assist you with these alternate means. We shall not be liable for any expenses you incur as a result of using alternate means of access or payments.

Except as otherwise provided in this Agreement or by law, we are not responsible for any loss, injury, or damage, whether direct, indirect, special, consequential or exemplary damages, including lost profits, attorney fees, goodwill, use, data or other intangible losses (even if advised of the possibility thereof) resulting from (i) the use or inability to use the Service; (ii) the cost of procurement of substitute goods and services or messages received or Transactions entered into through or from the Service; (iii) unauthorized access to or alteration of your transmissions or data; (iv) statements or conduct of any third party on the Service; or, (v) any other matter relating to the Service including the installation, operation, or maintenance of your computer or related equipment

ERROR RESOLUTION PROCEDURES FOR PERSONAL ACCOUNTS

In cases of errors or questions about electronic Transactions involving your Personal Deposit Accounts (refer to your Cardholder Agreement for procedures relating to errors or questions regarding your Commerce Bankcard Accounts and refer to your Credit Agreement for procedures relating to errors or questions regarding your Credit Accounts):

Call us or write us at the phone number or address listed in this Agreement as soon as you can, if you think your statement is wrong or if you need more information about a Transaction listed on the statement. We must hear from you no later than 60 days after we sent the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared, or no later than 60 days after we send the e-mail notification that the FIRST statement on which the problem or error appeared was available online.

- Tell us your name and Account number.
- Describe the error or the Transaction you are unsure about, and explain as clearly as you can why you believe it is an error or why you need more information.
- Tell us the dollar amount of the suspected error.

If you tell us orally, we may require that you send your complaint or question in writing within 10 Business Days. Generally, we will tell you the results of our investigation within 10 Business Days after we hear from you and will correct any error promptly. If we need more time, however, we may take up to 45 calendar days to investigate your complaint or question. If we decide to do this, we will provisionally re-credit your Account within 10 Business Days for the amount you think is in error so that you will have the use of the money during the time it takes us to complete our investigation. If we ask you to put your complaint or question in writing and we do not receive it within 10 Business Days, we may not re-credit your Account. If notice of an error involves a new account, the applicable time period for acting shall be 90 calendar days in place of 45 days. For new accounts we may take up to 20 business days to credit your account for the amount you think is in error.

If we decide that there was no error, we will send you a written explanation within 3 Business Days after we finish our investigation and will revoke any provisional credit to you Account. You may ask for copies of documents that we used in our investigation.
